

The Greatest Play

By LEEFORD TANNEHILL

That I Ever Saw

Infielder of the Chicago White Sox and Who is Regarded Among the Players as One of the Greatest Infielders in the Business.

I was of the opinion that it would be hard for a player, after years of service, to pick out any play that he could call the greatest. But when I begin to think back over them there is only one that stands out far above the others. It was a play that Eddie Hahn made when he was playing right field for the Sox the year we beat the Cubs and won the world's championship.

To me the catch he made during one of the games late in the season, before we had clinched our own pennant, was the most remarkable I ever witnessed. He proved his gameness there, and proved it again later when he played out the string after having his nose broken by a pitched ball.

If you recall, we were battling hard for the pennant in the American league. The Sox had come from behind, being way down at the end of the list up to near the middle of the season, and they fought their way straight up to the top. Every one was worn out and almost exhausted from the hard work, and they were fighting us every step of the way almost to the last day of the season. Our pitchers were overworked, and it looked as if one beating would ruin the whole season's work and put us out of it. We were playing one of the eastern clubs—I have forgotten which—and in the eighth inning were leading by one run and fighting every step of the way to hold that lead. The other team was hitting hard, and it took a lot of fielding to prevent them from scoring. It looked as if a tie would be the same as a defeat the way things were turning, and when in the eighth they got two men on bases and one out it looked all off.

The circus seats had been erected in right field, making the playing field a little short, and the batter drove a hard line ball straight at those seats. If the ball went through the seats Hahn would have to run clear around them to get it—and three runs would score. Hahn saw the situation and sprang out with a desperate effort to catch that ball. He never slackened his pace or tried to save himself. He saw the ball going over his head, and although he was within a few feet of the temporary seats, he took a flying leap and caught the ball. As it struck his hands he went crashing into the seats, hitting the fourth row from the bottom. The shock drove his body almost between the rows. He was doubled up, and half of us thinking

CHILD'S HEAD SOLID MASS OF HUMOR

It Was Awful. Cried Continually. Had to Hold and Watch Him to Keep Him from Scratching. Suffering Was Dreadful.

Had not Used Half a Set of Cuticura Remedies Before Head Was Clear and Free from Eczema.

"I think the Cuticura Remedies are the best remedies for eczema I have ever heard of. My mother had a child who had a rash on his head when it was real young. Doctor called it baby rash. He gave us medicine, but it did no good. In a few days the head was a solid mass, a running sore. It was awful, the child cried continually. We had to hold him and watch him to keep him from scratching the sore. His suffering was dreadful. At last we remembered Cuticura Remedies. We got a dollar bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bar of Cuticura Soap. We gave the Resolvent as directed, washed the head with the Cuticura Soap, and applied the Cuticura Ointment. We had not used half before the child's head was clear and free from eczema, and it has never come back again. His head was healthy and he had a beautiful head of hair. I think the Cuticura Ointment very good for the hair. It makes the hair grow and prevents falling hair." (Signed) Mrs. Francis Lund, Plain City, Utah, Sept. 10, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are for sale throughout the world, but to those who have suffered much, lost hope and are without faith in any treatment, a liberal sample of each with 32-p. booklet on the skin will be mailed free, on application. Address: Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 12B, Boston.

he had been killed or seriously hurt, started out just as he pulled his body out of the hole between the boards, got up and threw. The throw was made from the seats, and although the runners took an extra base on the catch, he got the ball to the infield in time to prevent the runner scoring from second. Hahn was hurt, but refused to quit the game, and the next ball was an easy fly, and he limped under and caught, stopping the rally and saving the game for us. (Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

DES MOINES CLUB ON THE MARKET, BUT IS NOT SOLD

Omaha, Neb., July 6.—President Higgins of the Des Moines baseball club, of the Western League, has admitted that he has received at least three offers, none of which were satisfactory. One of these came from a well known catcher now playing with another club in the league.

BOURBON BEAU WINS THE LATONIA FEATURE RACE

Latonia, Ky., July 6.—Bourbon Beau won the feature event at Latonia and equalled the track record for a mile and 70 yards. High Private was second, half a length back. Jockey McCoy had a good day, riding the first four winners. Delaney, the favorite, won in the third.

Oskosh Lad Willing to Meet Klaus In Twenty Round Match

By T. S. ANDREWS.

EDDIE MCGOORTY, the Oskosh middle weight, who should have been a champion, is now after a match with Frank Klaus, the strong boy from Pittsburgh, for the coming fall. "He is one man whom I want Eddie to meet," said Patsy Callahan, manager of McGoorty, "as it has been our misfortune to miss two chances to take him on, Eddie having been ill at the time. I am ready to post a substantial forfeit any time the boys are matched and if there is no bout Klaus can take the money. Klaus has been making a showing on the coast and should be ready for the big ones in the fall. I prefer to meet him at New Orleans in a twenty round bout, as that is where they can have it out for keeps. I also wish to correct a report that got into the papers that Jack Dillon had gained a win over McGoorty at Winnipeg. In the first place there are no decisions given in that city and besides all the Winnipeg papers gave the contest to McGoorty on points, while a couple of critics called it a draw. However, it was a no-decision affair and if Dillon wants any more of Eddie's game, why he can have it any time."

An expensive call off. The calling off of the Packey McFarland-Tommy Murphy bout in Milwaukee, for June 30, cost the boys quite a sum of money, as there is no doubt it would have drawn over $5000. The trouble all came about through a mixup in Chicago over the running of a special train to the West Side Athletic club of New Orleans is trying to bring about management notified manager Thery for McFarland that it would be called off unless the trouble was fixed up, as it would not leave time to get out the advertising, etc., and besides the club refused to be dictated to in that manner. A time limit was given the Chicagoans to fix up matters, but failing the bout was cancelled as the club announced it would be. It is about time that boxers and their managers learned to attend to the boxing end of the game and not hamper the promoters with such petty annoyances. The promoters have troubles enough without having to be bothered with affairs that should not concern the boxers or their managers.

Middleweights Signing Up. Quite a number of the prominent middleweights about the country have signed contracts to appear at New Orleans next fall to select a man to match against Billy Papke for the world's championship. Twenty-round bouts can be held at New Orleans and that is about the right distance for near championship contests. Papke has won the middleweight championship of Great Britain and is therefore about the nearest to the world's title of any one. He was considered the next best man to Stanley Ketchel before the latter was killed and therefore has a better claim to the honor than any of the others. However, Papke will have to meet the winner of the elimination bouts if he wants to get a clear title and that is what the West Side Athletic club of New Orleans is trying to bring about.

Texas League Notes and Gossip

San Antonio, Texas, July 6.—Borleske, the new Dallas college catcher, is on the job. He has done nothing brilliant as yet but seems to be a very good ball player nevertheless. Southpaw Gilbert, recently cut loose from the San Antonio payroll, will try his hand in the Southwest Texas league.

The 80 days suspension rule for catches with umpires is having its effect in the Texas league. There has not been a run in for many weeks. Even Pat Newman and Hunter Hill of the Houston Hot Heads are keeping quiet.

Red Downey, of the Austin team, has established a new record for the distance which a ball has been knocked in a Texas league game. It was for a homer.

Umpire Matthews is on the sick list. His absence is felt. He is in big demand in this league as an umpire.

Morton is in good at Galveston. A petition signed by 750 fans was presented asking that he be saved to pitch the second game of the Houston double header. It is seldom fans become so deeply interested in a pitcher.

In the at home series, Houston won 13 of the first 22 games. This is a fine record and put Houston close up to the top in the percentage table.

Doak Roberts, of the Houston team, says there is no likelihood of a trade whereby Red Davis will go to Galveston in return for pitcher Malloy. He says that Houston is not badly in need of pitchers at present and that it would be very hard to fill Davis's place in the outer garden. Davis has a slump in batting recently but seems to have completely recovered his eye.

Another veteran of the Texas league has been put into the discards. Houston has released Alexander. He played in the Texas league before the Spanish-American war broke it up. He says that Houston is not badly in need of pitchers at present and that it would be very hard to fill Davis's place in the outer garden. Davis has a slump in batting recently but seems to have completely recovered his eye.

The Southern tour of the North Texas teams is now at an end. The trip was a disastrous one for several pennant hopes. The South Texas teams now go north. If the North Texas teams are as lucky at winning games on the home grounds as were the South Texas teams there will be an entirely different lineup in the first division within 10 days.

Tris Speaker, the Texas with the Boston Americans, has got his batting eye back since he recovered from his recent injury. He is now batting at a .363 clip and holding in brilliant shape. Next to Ty Cobb he is probably the greatest outfielder in the business. He ranks close to the top notch for baseball men of all time.

A few years ago he was a discarded pitcher in the Texas league and was put in the outfield on account of his hitting ability.

Cook, of Austin, is doing some fine hitting. He looks like a likely man all round. He is one of the new additions to the team and is fitting in well with the veterans.

In the Houston game of Saturday, Walter Morris hit a home run with three on the bases. There were two out at the time. This was a closely contested game for Fort Worth. Morris likes a whole lot of being a dead one or a has been. He is pulling Fort Worth right to the front.

Leon San Antonio's catcher, is now doing brilliant work. He was secured from the American association and looks ripe for a recall. He is not only doing the receiving in a fancy style but he is also hitting the ball with regularity.

Plays of Merit to Be Rewarded—Big Crowd Sees Game.

Las Cruces, N. M., July 6.—At least 1000 people witnessed the double-header ball game at the Mill park. The indications of a storm prevented a few of the fans from being present at the first game, but the grandstand was filled with a most enthusiastic bunch of rooters and the good plays were well received.

The first game, between the Professionals and the Business Men, was only for six innings, and resulted 10 to 7 in favor of the Professionals. In the second game, between the Outlaws and the Internationals, the Outlaws won, 13 to 9. On account of three games being played on three days by the Outlaws the work of the battery was very strong, and a little more strength in the field will make this team hard to beat.
